Sarles North Dakota February 10 1919.

Mr. E. J. Langer,
Bismark,
North Dakota.
Dear Sir:

I am sending you this statement of Mr. and Mrs. [REDACTED]'s according to your request when I was to see you, of course you know that I am no lawyer so I got this the best I could. I am sure that there is no doubt in regard to sufficient evidence to this case. I am quite sure this boy was brought in this case to hide his uncle. We were only giving you facts that can be proven. I am sending you the girls report card which I got from the professor of our school. Now as I told you when I saw you she has had a lot of disadvantages.

Well I sincerely hope that you will do something with this case.

I would like to have you send me a copy of what you had from Mr. Grimson when I was there.

Yours Truly,

L F Shnegarcher
